

DEAR VISITORS

The State Museum of Political History of Russia is located in two mansions, M. Kshesinskaya's and V. Brant's, both built in the early XX century. In 1957, they were joined together by a central building.

We suggest starting your tour with the main exposition, «Man and State Power in Russia from the 19th to the 21st Centuries», situated on the first and second floors of the central building. Enter from the Atrium.

ROOM 1A – «Man and State Power in Russia: 1801 - 1917»
ROOMS 23 - 26 – «Man and State Power in Russia: 1918 - 1999»

You can enter Brant's Mansion from Room 1A. The following exhibits are presented there:

ROOMS 1 - 6 – «The Soviet Epoch: Between Utopia and Reality»
ROOM 7 - 9 – temporary exhibition

Exhibitions and memorial rooms are presented in Kshesinskaya's Mansion (to the right from the room 1A):

ROOMS 10 - 11 – «The Empire on the Way to Modernisation. Russia in the XIXth – Early XXth Century»
ROOM 16 – «Matilda Kshesinskaya: Fouettés of Fate»
ROOMS 18 - 22 – «Revolution in Russia: 1917 - 1922» (including memorial rooms: «The Secretariat of the Bolshevik Party» and «Vladimir Lenin's Office»)

Temporary exhibitions are located on the third floor of the central building (rooms №№34, 35).

For more detailed acquaintance with the museum you can use an audio-pen, the interactive audio-guide for the expositions: «Man and State Power in Russia from the 19th to the 21st Centuries», «Revolution in Russia: 1917 - 1922», «Matilda Kshesinskaya: Fouettés of Fate».

Cost – 250 roubles.

We also offer an audio-guide with further historical information about the exposition, «The Soviet Epoch: Between Utopia and Reality» and memorial rooms, «The Secretariat of the Bolshevik Party», «Vladimir Lenin's Office».

Cost – 250 roubles.

We welcome your comments, suggestions and feedback.
