

A MAP OF THE DALLAS MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

Inspiring Minds Through Nature & Science

The mission of the Dallas Museum of Natural History is to further an understanding and appreciation of the natural world through collection-based research, education and exhibition programs; to further in particular an understanding of the biological diversity and natural history of Texas; and to preserve the collections for the enlightenment and enjoyment of future generations.

1st Floor Highlights

Wildlife Habitat Halls	Discovery Room
• Bison Hall	Nature Store
• Hall of Texas Mammals	Volunteer Center
• Hall of Texas Wetlands	Changing Exhibits Gallery B
• Hall of Texas Birds	First Aid, Security Post

2nd Floor Highlights

Texas Dinosaurs	Ocean Dallas
• T. rex	• Heath Mosasaur
• Acrocantbosaurus	• Protostega
• Tenontosaurus	Mary Harris Ray Auditorium
• Torosaurus	Classroom
• Alamosaurus	Changing Exhibits Gallery A
Ice Age Dallas	Verizon Technology Learning Center
• Trinity River Mammoth	Dino Store
• Glyptodont	Restrooms

Basement Highlights

Changing Exhibit Gallery C	Restrooms
Fossil Lab	Museum Offices
Live Animal Room

General Information

• Museum Admission

Adult	$6.50	Children (3-12)	$4.00
Sr. Citizens (55 & Older) ...	$5.50	Infants (Under 3)	Free
Student (13-18)	$5.00	Museum Members	Free

• Join the Adventure

Become a member of the Dallas Museum of Natural History and explore a world of wonder. Memberships are available at the Box Office or by calling 214-421-3466 x220

Smithsonian	$100.00	Individual	$50.00
Family	$75.00

Education Programs

Explore our wide variety of education programs including camps, workshops, outreach programs, field trips and camp-ins. Call 214-421-3466 x210 for more information.

• Birthday Parties

The Museum offers children ages 4-12 the experience of celebrating their birthday with the wonderful and fascinating natural history of Texas. Call 214-421-3466 x209 for information.

• Sleepovers

Spend the night with dinosaurs and other prehistoric creatures! Sleepovers are perfect for families, church and scout groups. Designed for ages 7 - 12. Call 214-421-3466 x210 for more information.

Volunteer Opportunities

The Museum offers a wide variety of volunteer opportunities. Become an education docent, assist in the Collections Department, Paleontology lab, and at special events. Call 214-421-3466 x211 for more information.

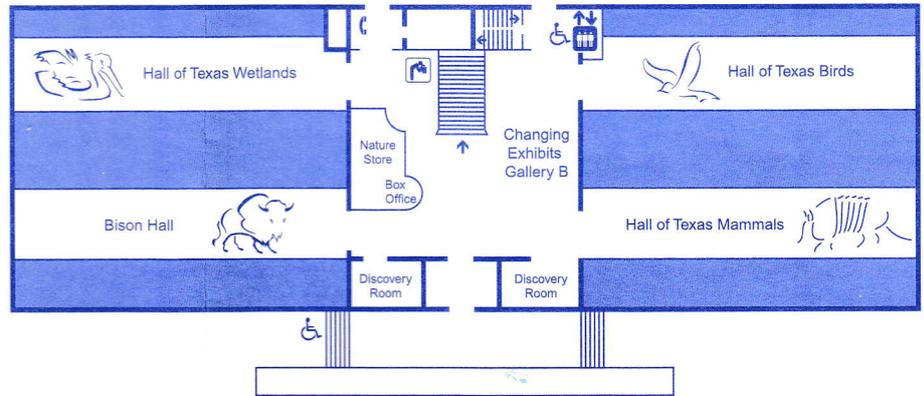

Museum Rental

Are you looking for something different for your event? The Museum offers a unique setting for any occasion. Call 214-421-3466 x226 for more information.

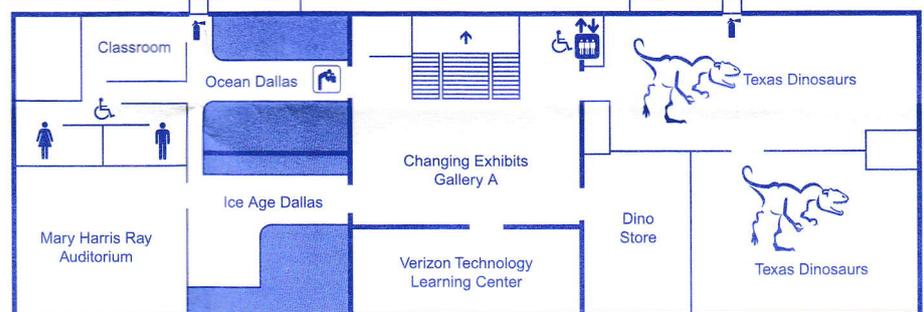

Museum Web Site

Visit our web site at www.dallasdino.org. An Earthcam.com video camera broadcasts live images of our mammoth located in front of the Museum.

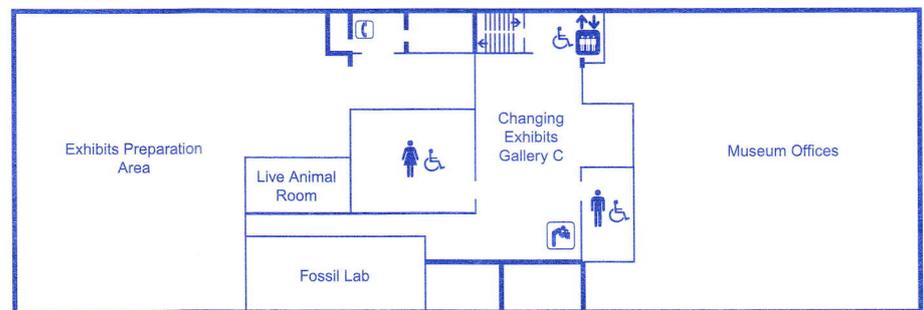

First Floor

Second Floor

Basement

Legend

Information Desk	Disabled Access	Elevator	Restrooms
Members Desk	Public Phones	Drinking Fountains

The Dallas Museum of Natural History is funded in part by the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs and the Texas Commission on the Arts and is supported by Microsoft Corporation and the Junior League of Dallas. American Airlines is the official airline of the Museum and The Dallas Morning News is the official sponsor.